FHA-HERO HELD FASHION SHOW AT ACHS

On Wednesday, April 20, 1977, there was a fashion show held in the ACHS auditorium during the joint HERO-FHA meeting. Thirty-two girls modeled the outfits they had made in Home Economics classes or at home. As girls modeled, the descriptions were read by Sandy Jamerson. Ruth Stratton provided the background music. The judges were Mrs. Peggy Marshall of Marshall's Dept. Store; Mrs. Carole Abernathy of Carole's Fashions; Mr. Jack Hutcheson, a D.E. teacher at ACHS, and Mr. Dennis Torrence, an agriculture teacher at ACHS. The winners were as follows: In dressy outfits, 1st place, Gloria Hamlet; and 2nd place, Willa Coleman. In the sports outfit, 1st place went to Diedre Tweedy; and in 2nd place was Vivian McFadden. After the show the models and judges enjoyed a tea given by the HERO chapter.

St. Luke

On April 11 at 3 p.m. the joint usher program was an enjoyable feature. The male chorus of the St. Luke's Church made a first appearance and gave the enjoyable music to the occasion. Mrs. Elam was at the piano.

Mrs. Louise Canada gave words of greetings to the vistors and also a history of the usher board. The Usher Board was organized by Deacon A. H. Clayton, who is now deceased, forty-two years ago.

Mr. Richard Mason introduced Mr. Garland E. Harris, president of the Lynchburg Ushers Union. Mr. Harris gave an interesting talk from Matt. 11"Come unto me all you that labor." Subject: "Are You An Heir?" Mrs. Anna Canada, president, gave thanks to all for coming. Rev. Alvin Jones spoke on behalf of the pastor. Thus a very rich program was concluded. The offering was great.

Sunday, May 1 was enjoyed as many friends and members attended the regular preaching services at the St. Luke's Church. Pastor Rev. J. E. McLaughlin was on the rostrum and gave a great message from the text Gen. 37 and Jonah 1-2 - Subject "Out of the Depths of the Pit I Cried". He brought the story of Joseph being put into the pit by his brothers because of hate. Jonah was put into the pit in the while because he did not obey God, so he cried to God out of the pit.

The choir gave oral music because the pianist is still on the sick list. All were wonderful.

Mrs. Eva Hamlette of Pittsburgh, Pa., is a visitor in the home of Mrs. Grace Walker.

Mrs. Inez Patrick is soon to return home after an illness that caused hospitalization for a while. We are happy for her.

The Cornerstone Baptist Sunday School Union will be meeting with the Mt. Lyle Baptist Church the fifth Sunday in May. All are invited to please come.

At St. Luke Sunday, May 8 at 4 p.m. there will be a program, "Youth in Action." Rev. J. E. McLaughn will be the speaker.
